CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR, J

DATED : 23RD MARCH, 2007

P.C.

1. Heard. Perused the application. There is no substance in the contention sought to be raised on behalf of the applicant/original respondent. Besides, even for grant of any interim relief, there is no prima facie case made out. The records disclose that the applicant/original respondent was employed under a scheme and his services were terminated on completion of the said scheme. Undisputedly, there is no evidence led by the applicant/original respondent that he was not gainfully employed or that he made any effort to obtain any gainful employment during the period from the date of termination of his services till the impugned order was passed.

2. In the circumstances, therefore, there being prima facie case made out by the respondents/original petitioners, I do not find any justification for recall of the order dated 10th November, 2006 in Writ Petition No.4301 of 2006.

3. Needless to say that all the observations made are only for the purpose of deciding the present civil application. The civil application accordingly is rejected.
